

Flaxpits House.

Flaxpits House is a residential service offering care and support for nine younger people.

The service is based in a spacious refurbished bungalow in Winterbourne. The home is open to people with learning disabilities, aged between 18 and 40, with complex physical and emotional needs.

Flaxpits House offers a lively and dynamic environment. Service users are supported to be as independent as possible and to develop new skills.

Staff use a variety of communication methods to ensure that people are fully involved in all aspects of home life.

Facilities

The home offers nine spacious bedrooms, some of which have en-suite bathrooms, as well as four additional bathrooms/toilets. There is also an accessible kitchen, spacious lounge, large enclosed gardens and a car park.

The accommodation includes a two bed first floor flat for those who are working towards being more independent.

The large amount of space within the home means residents can have their own personal space away from others if they need it.

The home is adapted for wheelchair use. Facilities include an accessible wet room, hi-lo bath, spacious rooms, wide doorways and corridors and an adapted house vehicle. One bedroom has a ceiling hoist and en-suite washroom.

The home also has the use of two wheelchair-adapted vehicles.

Person-Centred Care

Each service user has their own timetable which staff help them to follow.
