

Elysian Villas.

THE DIFFERENCE ELYSIAN VILLAS MAKES

Elysian Villas provides a home and support to people who have complex behavioural needs. Support packages are tailored to each individual and, because the service is comprised of three separate villas, we can ensure that each person is in an environment that suits them. For example, Villa 3 has been developed to support younger people who may be experiencing residential care for the first time.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT ELYSIAN VILLAS

Specialist skills - Our staff are trained in behaviour management and support, epilepsy awareness and best interest decision making, amongst other specialties.

Space to live - The three villas are spacious buildings and there is a large, well-maintained garden, which has its own trampoline.

A great location - The home is close to many shops, cafés, pubs and restaurants. It is near to several green spaces and has good bus links to Bristol city centre.

OUR VALUES

We start with the person. We encourage people to pursue their own interests and goals and help them make connections in the community.

We bring people close. We foster close links with family and involve them in decision-making.

We take our creativity to work with us. To aid communication, we may use pictorial support plans, menus and activity timetables.

We are courageous in our approach. We encourage people to develop independent living skills and to take part in activities that are meaningful to them.
