THE DIFFERENCE COURT ROAD MAKES

Court Road provides a home and support to people who have a learning disability and additional complex needs. We aim to support and empower people to lead fulfilling lives through a person-centered approach, respecting the needs and preferences of each individual, and helping them to pursue their hobbies and interests.

THREE GREAT THINGS ABOUT COURT ROAD

Wide-ranging support - Staff are experienced at supporting people with a range of different needs, including epilepsy, diabetes and complex emotional needs.

A great space - There are lots of spaces suitable for group activities or time alone, such as an enclosed garden with a greenhouse and shed, and a dedicated activity room.

A great location - Situated in Kingswood, the home is close to shops, restaurants, cafes and parks. It is also on a major bus route from Bristol to Bath.

OUR VALUES

We start with the person. From horse riding to trips to the pub, we encourage people's individual hobbies and interests.

We bring people close. Each person is assigned a key worker, who they have shared interests with.

We take our creativity to work with us. We give people quality one to one support, which is based on their interests and preferences.

We are courageous in our approach. Staff identify training that will help them give support tailored to the people living at Court Road.
